

Passport Issuance (Passport Seva)

Unofficial explanatory guide based on verified official information. Verify on official portal.

Introduction

Issuance/renewal of Indian passports (ordinary, Tatkaal, diplomatic/official) by the Ministry of External Affairs through Passport Seva Kendras (PSK) and Post Office PSKs.

Eligibility

Indian citizen; must provide proof of date of birth, address, and nationality. Minors require parent consent.

Benefits

Internationally recognised travel document; enables visa-free/visa-on-arrival access; Tatkaal for urgent issue.

Documents Required

- Proof of Date of Birth (Mandatory)
- Proof of Address (current) (Mandatory)
- Proof of nationality / old passport (if renewing) (Mandatory)
- Annexure as applicable (Mandatory)
- Marriage certificate (name change) (Optional)
- ECNR eligibility proof (Optional)

Application Process

Step 1: Register on passportindia.gov.in and fill the application form.

Step 2: Pay fee and book appointment at nearest PSK/PopSK.

Step 3: Visit PSK with originals + photocopies for document verification and biometric capture.

Step 4: Police verification (for fresh passports) at registered address.

Step 5: Passport printed and dispatched; track status online.

Fees

Normal 36-page: Rs. 1500. Tatkaal 36-page: Rs. 3500. (10-year validity for adults; minors 5 years / till age 18).

Timeline

Tatkaal: ~1-3 days post verification. Normal: ~30 days (post police verification).

FAQs

Q: Can I apply from a different state than my address?

A: You must apply from your current address jurisdiction; police verification happens at the address given.

Q: What is the difference between Normal and Tatkaal?

A: Tatkaal is an expedited service with higher fees and pre-verification; Normal follows standard police verification.
